

The Indiana Telephone Privacy law is too important to let businesses weaken the no-call list availability to Hoosiers. I strongly recommend NOT changing the law as written and currently enforced. It works as designed for those individuals and families opting to add their information to the no-call list.